Imperial Sovereign Court of the Wild Rose-
President of the Board

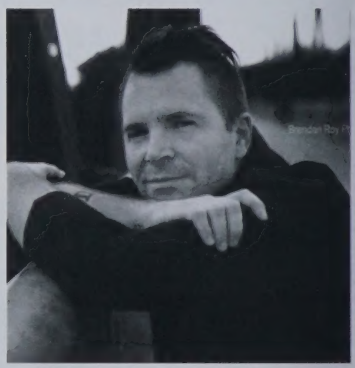

Welcome guests, monarchs, and friends, to Edmonton, for Coronation 43.

The last few reigns have seen the court expand so much out of our historically typical channels. Exciting new partnerships with different venues, branching out into the city, working more closely with our charities, and reaching out to the youth in our community. The 42nd reign has excelled at this, and I know the 43rd will continue their good deeds.

It is an exciting time for the organization, seeing such an influx of new blood. Sometimes, this can be challenging, as balance needs to be found between the thrill of trying new things and the respect of traditions and protocols. Sometimes, this can be challenging, as members who have carried the torch pass it on to these new young dynamos. Stepping from the spotlight into a more background role can be hard for us old guard, but we can do so secure in the knowledge that we have helped build something wonderful and long-lasting. To the new members of our group, carry this torch with confidence, not arrogance, and with the knowledge that we are there to guide and nurture you as you take our organization and community into a new era.

Dyxson, Carrie, Harvey, Divina, Trey, and Kenya - you should all be genuinely proud of your accomplishments this year, and I hope it has been a rewarding experience for you. I hope you are looking around the room tonight and seeing only love and pride reflected back at you. You all deserve this night of accolades and celebration.

I remain, in service
Emperor 26, 28, 36

Coronation XLII Week

Coronation XLII Week

President of the College of Monarchs

Good evening friends and chosen family, It is with great pleasure and excitement that I welcome you all to Edmonton and Coronation 43 ~ An Evening of Prism Jewels and Cascading Colours! The Imperial Sovereign Court of the Wild Rose has had an amazing 42nd year doing amazing deeds and fundraising for Edmonton's LGBTQ2S Community. Our efforts have been rewarded this year when our organization was presented the Jose Honor Award for the Court of Distinction by our Queen Mother ~ HMISM Empress Nicole the Great of the Americas. This award is presented to Courts in the International Court System doing outstanding work in their local communities. A true honor indeed!

The 42nd Imperial House of Bear Hugs and Big Jugs has had a most successful reign raising funds for the Pride Center of Edmonton and The Elizabeth Fry Society of Edmonton as well as funds for the John M Kerr Memorial Bursary Fund which a few students will be benefiting from this evening. In addition the Upper House, membership and community at large raised thousands of dollars for Little Warriors in memory of our beloved Superman ~ HISM Emperor 35 of Edmonton, LJ Steele.

I have never been more proud of this amazing organization that I consider Family. This year saw us all come together, to support and love each other like never before in the face of loss. The love and support from every corner of our Canadian Empire gave everyone the strength to carry on with the task at hand and have a most outstanding year that I know LJ would be immensely proud of. On behalf of the ISCWR College of Monarchs I wish to thank you for the love and support this year and for joining us to celebrate the achievements of Reign 42. Have an amazing weekend and we shall see you all in our travels during the reign to come.
Hugs and Love

INTERNATIONAL IMPERIAL COURT COUNCIL

OF THE UNITED STATES, CANADA AND MEXICO

Greetings to the Imperial Sovereign Court of the Wild Rose,

2018 is a most important year for our court system. As we focus on four important projects...

I 2018 has been declared the "Year of the Woman".
I challenge each court to double their membership when it to women.

II Let's erase hate in 2018!
The Mathew Shepard Foundation is this years designated charity... Ten years ago our court chapters all raised $140,000.00 for the Mathew Shepard Foundation. 2018 is the 20th anniversary of this foundation. All courts are requested to hold fundraisers for this worthy and beloved organization.

III Stonewall 50!
The 50th anniversary of the Stonewall Riots will be celebrated next year. We will be install the permanent National Wall of Honor in the Stonewall Inn in New York City. This year we have begun working on this historic project.

IV GLBT Vote 2018!
We have now established an American civil rights arm of our court system. The GLBT Civil Rights Network, U.S.A. We will be focusing on registering and getting out the vote in 2018 as it will be one of the most important elections of our time. www.getoutthevote.org

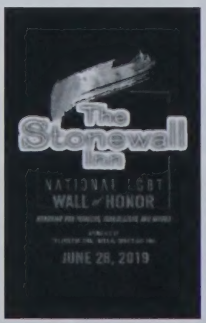

At this time, I would like to congratulate Emperor 42 Trey LePark Trash and Empress 42 Kenya DeWitt on a very successful reign. I thank you for your service and dedication to your community. Congratulations on drawing new and younger people by breaking gender boundaries as well as piloting the reign through a tragic loss, raising funds, and producing as well as directing the productions show of Moulin Rouge. Job well done. Good luck to the next reign!

It is my deep honor and privilege to be your Queen Mother and I wish God's blessings on you all.
I remain, the strength of the courts past, the promise of the courts future.
Respectfully,

Nicole Murray Ramirez

MESSAGE FROM THE PREMIER OF ALBERTA

On behalf of the Government of Alberta, it is my pleasure to welcome everyone to the Imperial Sovereign Court of the Wild Rose's Coronation 43 - An Evening of Prism Jewels and Cascading Colours.

Each year, the Imperial Sovereign Court of the Wild Rose reaches out to the broader community in a joyous celebration of individuality. Tonight's event is about a community coming together with pride and purpose in support of one another and the community beyond.

I hope this year's Coronation is a fabulous celebration of your 43-year history of giving back to the LGBTQ community and an exciting look forward under the new Imperial House. I commend each of you for helping create an inclusive, more welcoming society for this generation, and for all that will follow.

My sincere thanks to the organizers, sponsors, and volunteers who have helped to make this coronation a success.

Rachel Notley, Premier of Alberta

Message from His Worship Mayor Don Iveson

On behalf of City Council and the people of Edmonton, welcome to the 43rd Coronation of the Imperial Sovereign Court of the Wild Rose (ISCWR).

One of Edmonton's most valuable assets is our people. Our city was built by individuals who, regardless of gender, age, culture, faith, ability or sexual orientation, were willing to work together for the betterment of our neighbourhoods and communities. As Alberta's longest-running organization for the LGBTQ community, the ISCWR plays an essential role in strengthening our city. Since 1976, the ISCWR has fostered relationships between Edmontonians by supporting and celebrating individuals, charities and organizations who promote the values of goodwill, acceptance and respect.

I thank everyone involved in organizing this annual celebration, as well as those who have contributed to the ISCWR's fundraising efforts and events over the past year. Your support helps make Edmonton a more diverse, uplifting and welcoming home for all.

Best wishes for a spectacular gala!

Yours truly,

Don Iveson

The John DeSmit Citizen Of The Year Award

The Citizen of the Year Award is presented annually to a person who has contributed freely to making the gay community a better place to live. This contribution, although not necessarily publicly acclaimed, is one that allows each of us to move through life more freely and with more companionship among our neighbours and acquaintances.

John DeSmit was a man at ease with life and who socialized freely with everyone around him. He loved having a good time and demanded nothing from those he encountered. He showed the unaware that gay people are worth caring about. He was himself cared about by many people from all walks of life and his untimely death was a tragic loss to all who knew him.

It's hard to believe it has already been a year since I was here stepping down as Empress 41. My year was filled with many new friendships and memories I will always cherish. I'm sure as any stepping down monarch can attest, the last year has been a welcomed year of rest and recovery.

There are so many contributing people that made Reign 41 such an amazing year, but honestly, none of it would have been possible if it weren't for the venues such as Evolution Wonderlounge and every other space that welcomed us with open arms. Thank you for playing such an important role in our success.

Congratulations to the entire house of Bear Hugs and Big Jugs, you've had a wonderful year and I hope you are truly proud of yourself for what you have done this year. Enjoy a well-deserved break and celebrate your successes.

Good luck to the candidates this evening! Whatever the outcome may be, I wish Reign 43 a successful year. Work hard and make it a positive reign. It will be a busy but rewarding year.

It's been a tumultuous year. A year comprised of a lot of darkness, despair, some growth, but more than anything avoidance. A year of avoiding the reminders; avoiding the grief; avoiding the pain. Grief is a funny thing, it plays tricks with the mind. It sinks you into dark places, into "what ifs" and "if only I'ds ". Places where blaming yourself is easier than facing the things beyond your control. The places where anger is an abusive and controlling concubine who offers you frigid comfort. An endless string of "I'm fine" and " I'm doing alright" just so people will stop trying to talk about the thing you actually need to talk about, but don't want to. In the end and in complete honesty I'm not alright; I'm not fine; but it is something I recognize. I also know that this grief is something I can no longer avoid, in saying that, to become healthy again I feel I must take a step away. For the last seven years Bull has been the dominate factor of my public life, and Brian has taken a back seat. It's time for Brian to have the spotlight of my focus because at the end of the day if Brian isn't healthy in mind, Bull merely becomes the shell around the emptiness. A character to hide behind. So, to state the obvious, I will not be accepting titles, or sitting on boards in the year to come. This is by no means a good-bye, but for the time being it is a certain and definite fair well. I love court life and community and each of you, and I will stay in touch, but it's time for me to find my path back to Brian. I hope each of you understand. Much love to my partner Mike, and cheers to us as we journey forward ever toward our new normal (whatever that may entail).

I remain respectfully,
Emperor 41 of Edmonton and Emperor 36 of Calgary

As one of the pioneers in our community, a lot has changed over the past 40 years. We fought long and hard for our community in the areas of equality, acceptance, job security, as well as gay marriage and adoption. We have done very well; however we still have a ways to go.....and we will get there!
I'd like to give a shout out to those people who have helped me over the past 40 years and have put Chatty together. Thanks to Bobby P and Ron B for your friendship for over 45 years. Also, Chris (Lovee), Ray St Claire, Gretchen, Toots, Vera, Dayzi, David (Ethyl), and of course Twiggy, my make up artist, who is living proof you can make a silk purse out of a sow's ear! Her Most Imperial Sovereign Grace, Grand Duchess XLII,

Carrie Du'Way

Good evening Friends, Family, Dignitaries and Guests! Welcome to Edmonton For Coronation 43! Thank you all for being able to join us this weekend to celebrate this year. I'm certain the memories you make this weekend will last a lifetime.

As I reflect on this year, and my year as Duchess, there is so much up and down with emotion. Agreeing to be a part of the 42nd Reign was an easy choice. I was wanting a welcome distraction from the recent loss of my mother and I wanted to be a support for one of the most terrific people I know. However, it wasn't long before loss found its way to us here at home... We lost a pillar of our community, and I personally lost my Grandpappy and a fierce friend. Now, stepping into this role, grief, which I had attempted to avoid, was staring us directly in the face.

This has been a year of reset, realign and rebuild on so many facets, both as individual people and a community. One of the many things I was grateful for this year was the ability to mentor new people within the organization and form new friendships with amazing individuals. We set out to make this year one to remember. One that we could be proud of. I feel we achieved that without question.

To the 42nd House of Bear Hugs and Big Jugs:

In the coming months we will be tempted to focus on the things we wish we would have done or could have done better. I hope that each of you will take the time to remind yourself of the incredible things you've accomplished. Think of the smiles and the laughs you've shared with your Upperhouse... With your friends.

This reign has changed my perspective on a lot of things and afforded me the chance to grow as a community member, a drag queen and a person. I will be forever grateful for the things I have accomplished and learned this year.

It is hard to fit enough of anything into a half page, and there is no way I could possibly thank everyone in this forum. So I will end my message with my favorite Disney quote;

Ohana Means family. Family means nobody gets left behind, or forgotten.

All of my love,

Her Most Imperial Sovereign Highness, Princess XLII, Divina Diefor

Good evening ladies, gentleman, and those without the need for the binary. Tonight is An Evening of Prism Jewels & Cascading Colour, and the 42nd Imperial House of Bear Hugs and Big Jugs welcomes you to celebrate a wonderful year of dedication and hard work. My experience as HMISH Princess 42 this past year has been one that I will never forget.

Our year started off quite rocky and I fell victim to a piece of pizza. I could not have done it with the support of my family and friends, and most importantly the members of the Imperial Sovereign Court of the Governing Body Golden Wheat Sheaf Empire. The court of Regina have been an incredibly accommodating and friendly organization to me and my family, especially when times were tough. Thank you a thousand times over Regina!

To my Duke, Dyxson. You have made this year fun and fabulous for everyone in the ISCWR. I am consistently amazed at your dedication to lift Drag Kings up to better platforms in Edmonton, and your willingness to put in so much effort at your events. I smile every time you walk into the room.

To my Duchess, Carrie. There are no words for how much I feel I owe you. We may be elected into a hierarchy, but I will always view you as a mentor, a big sister, and someone I look up to. You have taught me so much this year, you have guided me through everything that has come my way, and you have been the first person to jump to help me when I needed it. You will forever be my sister!

To my Prince, Harvey. You have been a rock for the upper house this year. You are always willing to go the extra mile, and getting to know you even more this past year has been an absolute pleasure. You have always been a shoulder to cry on, and an open ear ready to hear about my bitching.

To my Emperor, Trey. I will never be able to match the amount of creative talent you emit every time you are on stage. Every performance, outfit, and paint is filled with so much creativity, talent, and imagination. You have done an amazing job this year, and I am so proud of you. Your leadership has brought us through tough times and has energized us through so many positive moments.

To my Empress, Kenya. You have been incredible this year. I have remained impressed since day one at how much you are willing to put into your work. You have blown me, and the rest of the community, away with your dedication, and your ability to juggle a million tasks at a time. You are an extraordinary queen, and I am so lucky to have met and worked with you. I want to congratulate you on one hell of a year and with your leadership we have surpassed even our own expectations.

To HISM Empress 37 & 42 ½ Vanity Fair. You have been an incredible support for our upper house this year. You are a staple in our community, and a fabulous leader. Thank you for all of your hard work this year.

To Ivy League & Rexy Resurrection. My two best friends, the queens I could not live without. You two have been such great supports for me this year. I don't deserve the amount of love and support you both give me, and it has been amazing to see both of you shine in our community. Thank you both so much.

To all of the candidates for Emperor and Empress tonight, I want to wish you a wonderful and successful year going forward, even if you are not chosen as a reigning monarch, I know that each and every one of you will continue on with the spirt of the ISCWR and make a difference in our community!

Welcome to Coronation 43! I've sat down multiple times to try and write this message and each time I've stared blankly at the page. I have so much to say and yet I struggle to find the words. To say this year didn't start as planned, would be an understatement. Our team started our reign by with a tragic loss that not only affected each one of us in a different way but also significantly impacted our ability to raise money for our chosen charities. I ran as Empress this year because I always knew that The Elizabeth Fry Society would be my charity of choice and while it was heart warming to see this community that I love come together to honor our fallen hero, I was genuinely worried that at the end of this venture, I would have nothing to give to EFry. Needless to say, that did not happen. I am so grateful to my team, this wonderful organization and all the people along the way who helped make this year possible and who allowed me the space and platform to fundraise for an organization that can sometimes be seen as "controversial".

Coming into the court and running for Empress as a baby drag queen, I wanted to make my predecessors proud. As one of the only biological women to hold the title of Empress with the ISCWR, I put an incredible amount of pressure on myself to always do better, to be the best. I won't lie, this year was hard. It took it's toll on my mental health, my relationships, and my finances. But more than that, it made me stronger, both as a queen and as person. I am incredibly proud of not only my extraordinary team, but of myself and I wouldn't change this experience for anything.

Dyxson – You were such a force to be reckoned with this year. I am so unbelievably proud of you and how easily you fit into our Upper House. Your organization, creativity and dedication are so admirable, and I think everyone could see how much you wanted to take your title and make the community a better place. You are a phenomenal King, performer and person.

Carrie – You are my family. This year has brought us closer together and I will cherish that for the rest of my life. You were my strongest support, both physically and emotionally. I don't think you will ever fully know how much I needed you this year. Your experience with the court made you a huge asset, not only to me, but our team. Please never forget YOU MUST EXIT ON CIRCLE DRIVE and as much as I love Jango, I'll always love you more!

Harvey – Your dedication and devotion to this organization and this reign is astonishing. You were such a strong team member and the amount of work you put in behind the scenes did not go unnoticed. You have such a bright future with this organization and I know amazing things are coming your way. You did a remarkable job as Prince, we were so lucky to have you. You've done three back to back reigning titles, I hope you enjoy your much-deserved break before coming back and taking the court by storm.

Divina – There was not a single show or event where you didn't wow me. You are an outstanding performer and artist, but more so, you are an exceptional person. I am so proud of how hard you worked this year. You held two titles, working, being a student, travel, multiple shows per weekend and yet you still were the first to offer a helping hand. I asked you to run for princess because I knew you were amazing and you did not disappoint. I hope you look back on this year as something to cherish and be proud of. You are like a younger sibling to me and will always hold our friendship in my heart.

Trey – You have such a big heart, you are a literal teddy bear and I truly hope this year was everything you had hoped for. I know this year had its ups and downs, but I truly hope you look back on this year and see all the good you did. I hope you know how much you've grown and how much I appreciated you being you. You are such an amazing person and I cannot wait to see where life takes you. I know you're excited to bring out CinnaMon more, but please don't forget about Trey Le-Park Trash!

LJ – This wasn't how it was supposed to go. I never thought I would spend my Empress year without you. You were always the one who made me feel the most loved and it broke me when you left us. I've watched this community grieve your loss and I've seen just how many lives you've impacted. I am so thankful for the time I had with you and I know had we had the chance, we would have slayed together. You may not have been here this year, but I felt you every step of the way. Please know how much I love and respect you and that I think about and miss you every damn day.

Ivanna – Where do I even start? You are without a doubt one of, if not the, most respected individuals on the circuit. Your passion for this organization is amazing and I knew there was no way that I could spend a year as Empress without you. Thank you for being so amazingly wonderful to me this year, you were everything I could have hoped for. I appreciate you and all you've done for me and a massive thank you for taking on ball coordinator this year. Having you with your vast expertise has made this year smooth sailing.

Myra – You are a force to be reckoned with. Thank you for standing by my side this year, especially after such a tragic and devastating loss. Your strength and resiliency are so inspiring. I know how hard this year was for you, but I could always count on you for pep-talks, reassurance that what I was feeling was normal and literally the best snuggle hugs. You were the first person to give me a chance in the court and you have quickly become my family. I cannot thank you enough for being there for me.

Vanity – I don't know if I precisely tell you how much you have done for me this year. Emotionally and physically you were everything I needed this year. You always knew exactly when I needed to talk/vent, you anticipated my needs, you made me look fabulous and were the absolute best friend I could have asked for. I could go on and on, but I will leave it at THANK YOU! I am beyond grateful for you this year and I don't know if I will ever truly be able to return the favour.

Skyler/Jessie – I've so enjoyed watching you flourish this year. When we first met, you were a quiet shy kid and this year I have seen you push out of your comfort zone and take on new exciting challenges. I could always count on you to lend a helping hand and whether you know it or not, you were a huge asset to our successes this year. I truly hope you continue to discover yourself through Jessie, and always know, you have family within me.

Ruby & Brandon – Never in my wildest ideas did I anticipate us all going our separate ways. Especially during my Empress year. Its been such a transition to not have you both in my daily life but I'm so happy to see you both happy. You both make my life so much better, each in different ways and I am so thankful everyday to have you. Thank you for everything you've both done to make this year a success. Thank you for the long chats and the hangouts and thank you for being by my side on this adventure. I love you both and will always considering you my family.

Rob – I've never known the ISCWR without you. In my small amount of time here you have always been the one absolute constant. I couldn't have imagined this past year without you. You kept me on my toes and were always there with a reassuring boost of confidence. I hope I made you proud, not only as our President, or as a past Monarch, but as a friend.

The Board – Thank you each of you for allowing me to try new ideas and helping make them successful. Thank you for guiding us to be the best reign we could be. A special thank you to Michelle for taking on the enormous task of ball program. I am so thankful!

Evolution Wonderlounge – You are my home. You are the place where I feel at ease, loved and myself. I cannot properly express how appreciative and indebted I am to you, Rob, Murray, Scott and the entire Evo team. You allowed us to invade your space and gave us so many opportunities to raise money for our charities and I am forever thankful. You have played a huge part in our successes this year and I look forward to many more years calling you my home.

My Parents and my sister, Shawna – thank you, from the bottom of my heart, for patiently waiting for me to finish this journey. Thank you for understanding, even when you didn't fully understand why. Thank you for giving me the freedom to take on such a time consuming and rewarding venture. Thank you for trusting me to know that this isn't permanent.

My love for you all is deep, and I can't wait to make up for lost time

Last but not least, my love, Tanner – 2 back to back reigns and now, nearly 2 years later we will start our lives together without being current title holders. You have been my horká brambora, my biggest fan, my best support, my shoulder to cry on, my best friend and everything I could have hoped for in a partner. Thank you for being so amazing and thank you for having my back during this journey. I know we will feel a little lost come September, but I cannot wait to go on all sorts of adventures with you, start crossing items off our bucket list and generally, continue to spend every day loving you more and more. Thank you for loving me, even when I don't love myself. I love you, I weird you and I am so utterly thankful to have found you.

To literally every single who played, even a small, role in making this year great, THANK YOU, from the absolute bottom of my heart. We couldn't have done it without you.

My year as emperor was not what I expected in the least. I thought I had prepared myself enough to deal with challenges I would face. I was wrong. My year as emperor taught me that you can try to prepare as much as you want but life isn't designed to go smoothly. Mistakes can happen and plans have to change even though you don't want them to. I have learned so much but I'm still not perfect. The journey is about growth and learning as much as you can. Trying to not take bad situations so seriously at times and just putting your arms in the air and enjoy the moment you are in because it will be gone all too fast. I need to thank the people who helped me threw out my year as emperor. Those who showed me kindness and love. I can't do everyone but I want you who is reading this to realize something. This is just a piece of paper. Real life encounters should mean more than a note in a book.

Devious Harte – Diane I saw you a lot on the circuit this year and I am so happy I did. I now have so many fond memories with you and I hope we create more together. Thank you for your genuine kindness.
Adam Goodtime – Nathan I'm so happy you and I got to reign together. We got to know each other very well as time went by and it's been very satisfying. You're a great guy and you deserve love and happiness. EMPEROR BUDDIES!!
Crystal Starr – Matt...Gurl. Your crazy and I love you for it. Your sassy wit and ability to always be smiling never ceases to amaze me. Thank you for being my drag mom and for all the Vodka!
Flo Mingo—Terry thank you for coming up and spending my birthday with me. You are a truly remarkable person and I'm so happy you came to Edmonton all the times you did. You are family.
Christy Heely has been my rock as well my light house of hope. I want to thank you For being in my life. I honestly can say I don't think I would be where am without you in my life. I love you Christy.
Jason Glover—You are one of the most genuine people I know. When I had hard days, you noticed and took an interest. Not too many people can overlook their own chaotic lives and focus on someone else and that, sir, is a fantastic gift. Never lose it, Jason.
Gigi Gaynor—Kevin you are one of the most beautiful and most robust willed people I know. I admired how determined and focused you are when you want something. One day I think you will achieve more significant and grander things but never forget who your real friends are.
Poppa Cherry—Chris every time you greet me with a huge smile and such a loving hug. For someone who misses his family a lot you make me feel loved and appreciated.
Lady Tenderflake— Gil I don't think you realize how much I appreciated being invited over to your place for Christmas this year. Sitting on the couch looking at those breathtaking images of the universe and just talking with you, was so magical. I treasure those memories.
Nova Gyna— Travis, I find you to be one of the most comfortable people with whom to talk. You are very approachable and as someone who might aspire to greater things I believe that is a tremendous tool to wield. You show so much compassion and empathy never loss that. You are meant for great things in your life, never give up.
Bambi Dextrous— One of the worlds kindest and non-malicious people I know. David your smile is just so refreshing when I walk into Evo. There are so many stuck up people worried about their own problems. Not you sweetheart! You're not afraid to go out and meet people.
Colin Bae— My 90's beats king! Cassie, I am so happy that you are now a title holder with the court. The court needs more boys, and I think some of our new drag kings are going to make huge waves in the Edmonton scene. *wink, wink.
Rexy Resurrection— Another new queen with tremendous potential. I want to thank you for all the hard work you have put into volunteering with the ISCWR. I'm pretty sure I've seen you volunteering at almost every show, and all, have noticed it. This organization needs fresh blood who are wanting to put in the work as volunteers and not just performing.
Mr. Silver— Chris you are one of the most real people I know. You always welcome me with a hug and smile. I want to thank you for all your great ideas and for going outside of the box this year. I hope to continue seeing you around at shows and never to stop singing.
Melinda Verga— Grrl! Mike, you did fantastic this year. Thank you for everything. Moulin Rouge, pride, and your amazing shows with fruits in suits. You worked so hard this year, and I am glad your reign as gay co-ran with my year as emperor. Mike I do also want to thank you for checking up with me back a little while ago. I needed a friend, and you were the perfect person for me. Your spirit is pure and robust keep on doing you gurl!

Ryder Kuntz— You are such a fantastic person. Your story at the gay pageant made me tear up. You always have the biggest smile and we always laugh like two big kids when we get together.

Ivy Ledge— hope you the best in your reign as Mz. Gay. Your speech about what you wanted to do as Mz. Gay touched my heart. Never lose that drive because there will be times when you almost will; remember why you did it.

Morgan Fair— I want to thank you for doing something so small that means the world to me. You say "Hi, how are you." It's so absurdly simple, but so many people do not do it. They walk past people, noses elevated. You make eye contact with a person, and you ask how someone is doing. Thank you. I do appropriate it.

Vanity Fair— Even though you weren't my "Intown Half" you still took the time to teach me. That is what a real leader of this organization is. Vanity I hope to be at your level one day and to be able to teach new members why we do what we do. You are a legend in my eyes, and I hope to see you go for bigger things very soon.

Irene Starr Black— Irene, you are the most real individual I have ever met, and I stand up and applaud you for this. No matter what comes your way you stay strong and never lose hope, Irene, I love you from the bottom of my heart, and you know how much of a bottom I am, LOL!

Big Daddy— Lorne you were there when we just wanted to have fun and you were still there when I needed you, and you Thank you for being one of the more engaging people with whom I could speak. It wasn't always about the court; we talked about a lot of real life stuff that was important too and thanks for sharing with me. I love you big guy.

Alexander DeKnight— I'm speechless when it comes to you Scott. Nothing but tears and love come to me when I think about you. Thank you so much for your help this year. All the checking up you did with me in Hamilton. Someone needs to invent a phrase that has more meaning than "Thank you" and "love you." They pale in comparison to a person as inspirational, courageous, honest, bold, creative, understanding, and loving as you.

Carrie Du'Way— One of the leaders of tomorrow. Lewis, you have already achieved so much, and one day you will step up as one of the best leaders the ISCWR has ever seen. Just remember to be you and that I am only a text or call away.

Dyxson Kuntz— Lindsey thank you for coming into unknown territory and stepping up to the plate as Duke. I hope to see you stick around and climb the court ladder because you will make an awesome leader one day.

Divina Diefor— Marcus, the number one trait that you possess that I wish I had is your voice of opinion. You are not afraid to say what you mean, and that to me shows you have so much courage, love, and determination in your heart. ANDS, princess, and school on the side. Gurl, you are crazy, and I Thank you from the bottom of my heart for it. Lastly, thank you for being there when I needed to talk to someone. Those drives home after rehearsals were indeed appreciated. You are a great friend!

Harvey Steele— My Puppy Prince. Tanner you helped me understand different sides of a situation and I have learned to be more patient with people. You were a great prince this year because you represent Edmonton with class. Vancouver was one of your shining moments, and I hope you know that everyone from Edmonton is proud of you. I do think it is funny that you asked me to run as your prince first but then you became mine. Tanner thank you for a stellar year and for being a fantastic rep for the ISCWR.

Kenya DeWitt— Well we did it. This past year with you has been exciting and we accomplished so much by pushing boundaries. We managed to lead a group of very new people through a tough year. I want to thank you for your leadership skills. You are a force to be reckoned with. Thank you for all the times you made me cheer up. You always know how to make me smile, with a firm grip...on my buttocks.

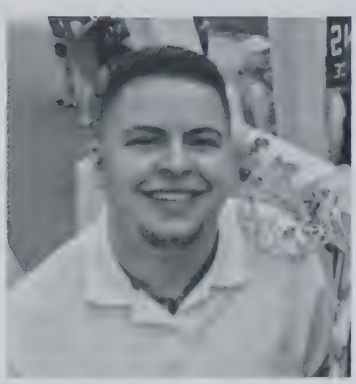

Thank you to all who came and to everyone one else I wasn't able to mention. I look forward to what my future holds, but I'm pretty damn excited about the present.

His Most Imperial and Sovereign Majesty.
Emperor XLII of Edmonton and all of Northern Alberta

Friends, Family, and distinguished guests, Welcome to the grand finale of Reign 42. I want to thank you all for coming to celebrate with us. The six of us, alongside the board and members of the organization, have worked our asses off for our charities this year. We tried lots of new things, while still upholding the traditions of the organization. I am truly proud of everything we accomplished this year, and cannot wait to see our work continue to inspire future reigns. There are a lot of people I could thank with this message, but I only have one page to work with. So for this message, I am only going to focus on my teammates, as they are the people I am most proud of this year. Here we go!

Dyxson Kuntz- It has been a true pleasure getting to know you better throughout this reign. You definitely came into this year with a goal in mind, and I believe truly surpassed what any of us expected. You have shown me what a true leader you can be, and I cannot wait to see the day you become Emperor. I hope that we continue this friendship past this reign and can work together on more projects in the future!

Carrie Du'Way- I expected to come into this reign and grow closer with every member of this team, but I definitely did not expect to grow this close of a friendship with anyone. Having our random (2-3x a week) hangouts at your place just to have a drink and talk about life has been such an uplifting part of my year. I didn't really know how either of us would handle this reign after last August, but I truly think that it brought us closer together. You and Chad have become such important people in my life, and I hope that we still get to have many, many, many more years of friendship together.

Divina Diefor Dairy- My Princess, god you kept me on my toes this year. Almost dying on me within the first week definitely could have put a strain on our reign (Thanks Regina :P), but luckily we came into this year with an already established friendship. We definitely didn't make it easy on ourselves. Reigning together, working together. But I think we worked out to be a solid team, picking each other up when we needed it, making sure to keep each other on track. With how busy you keep yourself, you still managed to be a vital asset to the team. Hopefully we continue to work together in the future, after a MUCH NEEDED break.

Trey LePark Trash- Well, we did it. I wanted to thank you for letting me work along side you this year. I know you started off your year in a way you weren't expecting, but you persevered and made it to the finish line. I wasn't really sure where we were going to be at the end of the reign. Although we butted heads earlier on, I truly believe we've moved past it all and finished off strong. I hope you got what you wanted out of your year, and feel proud of what you accomplished. It's not easy being taken seriously as a young, newer member to this organization, and I hope you feel like you have proven them wrong. Cheers, and good luck with your future endeavors.

Kenya Dewitt- My love, I am so unbelievably proud of you this year. You came into this year with a simple mission, and I believe you truly accomplished it, if not more. This year was hard, both mentally and physically, on both of us. I'm proud of how well we maintained our relationship over the year and if anything it made us even closer. I am hoping that you got exactly what you wanted out of this reign. I am excited to start a new journey with you, one where we get to spend nights not fussing over show details, racking our brains for performance ideas, planning outfits for the weekend. I'm excited to feel like a normal couple for a while, and I'm excited that it gets to be with you. I love you so much. Soak up tonight, enjoy all your friends and family being here. Have fun, be proud, be the amazing you that you are. Congratulations.

And with that, we have reached the end of this message. I promise I will get my thank yous out to the rest of you that I want to thank. For now, THANK YOU to those that believed in us, THANK YOU to those who supported us, and THANK YOU for those that were there for us behind the scenes. Enjoy tonight and good luck to whomever steps into Reign 43. Although I will be taking a step back this year, I will still be here to support you with whatever you need.

I remain in humble service,

His Most Imperial Sovereign Highness, Imperial Crown Prince 42 of Edmonton and All Northern Alberta,

The Superboy Puppy Prince

Harvey Steele Maines White Charmin

His Most Imperial Soverign Grace. Grand Duke XLII, Dyxson Kuntz

As I look back on the past year, I am proud of all I have accomplished: as duke representing and raising money for the ISCWR, as a drag performer continuing to push myself, and in my personal life. I am thankful for all the opportunities I have been given this year not just to perform, but also to talk about LGBTQ+ rights in our local community. Looking to the future, I have a few more tricks up my sleeve and even more new things I would like to try. With the experience I gained this year I have no doubt I will be able to pull them off!

To the Upperhouse: I had so much fun this year getting to know you all better and we worked SO GOOD as a team. Thank you for helping me accomplish my goals even when they may have been different from your own. It can be difficult at times fighting for space in the community as a drag king and you stood up for me whenever drag kings were being excluded. I feel we all have the common goal of striving for a better future for our community and this has brought us together. This has been a year of innovation and exploring new possibilities! Job well done!

Holly: Your support means so much to me. Whether I am brainstorming mixes, creating lewks, collecting donations, going to multiple events per week, organizing events, or writing a speech you are always helping me with every task and making it so much easier to get everything done on time. I couldn't have done it without you!

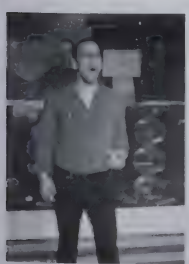

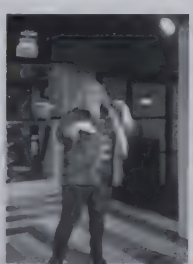

One of the best things I will take away from this experience is all the new friends I have made. Not just within the organization but in the larger community here in Edmonton and across Canada. Thank you so much to everyone who supported me this year, especially those of you who supported my vision of keeping with tradition but also trying things a little bit different.

John M Kerr Memorial Bursaries

The John M. Kerr Memorial Bursary was initiated in 1984 and is administered by the executive Board. Since that time, the ISCWR has given out a minimum of two $500.00 awards each year to students applying for post secondary education which will benefit the GLBT community.

We are once again pleased to present bursary recipients at tonight's Coronation Ball. This year, Reign 42 is pleased to present eleven bursaries to students pursuing their post-Secondary Studies.

The 30th "Gay Edmontons"

Welcome to Edmonton!

It is with great pride and pleasure that we present to you Coronation 43: An Evening of Prism Jewels & Cascading Colours! Reign XLII has worked collectively this year to bring the Imperial Sovereign Court of the Wild Rose to new venues and represent our organisation beautifully in every occasion.

As Mz. Gay Edmonton 30 I am extremely proud of the partnerships I have made with Edmonton's local business and LGBTQ+ organisations, and I hope to strengthen these wonderful connections after my reign.

It is my hope that you fully experience and enjoy the hospitality of Edmontonians during Coronation week. For the past year and a half that I have been a member of the ISCWR, I have witnessed how this organisation fully embraces individuals of diverse backgrounds, talents, and beliefs.

I look forward to meeting as many of you as possible while you are here and hope to make Coronation XLIII a memorable experience for you. On behalf of the ISCWR I thank you for your continued support and hope to see you in your respective cities.

Yours truly,

Melinda Verga, Mz. Gay Edmonton XXX

Reign 42!

It has been an honour to serve as your Mr. Gay Edmonton #30.
We make a living by what we get, but we make a life by what we give.
Giving back to the very community that helped shape much of my adult life is something I will continue to do long after my title has ended.

I'd like to thank the upper house for giving The Roast of Lilith Fair and John-Benet Ramsme a chance, and for making them a success! Thank you to all the volunteers that made those shows run smoothly. Thank you to all the donations whether it be with your money, with silent auction items, attendance or just spreading the word! I hope to do more of these shows in the future. A big shout out to my other half Melinda Verga. Though we weren't the closest Mr and Mz (high bar from Tanner and Tosheena) we were able to divide and conquer, nearly reaching our huge goal of $5000 raised by the Gays alone! Best of luck to the new reign!
